

relax...

it's a retreat

(for young people)

DVRC
JUNE 11-13

*do camp skills (or not),
ride a horse, eat good food, hot tub, hang with friends, enjoy nature,
meet with your Maker*

Saturday night concert

Speaker: Brad Moffatt

cost=$70; rsvp with Kendra by June 4th

REFRESH ~ RECONNECT ~ RELAX

Welcome to the Valley

Dallas Valley Ranch Camp is situated in the Boggy Creek Valley near Lumsden a short 20 minute drive north-west of Regina. The natural beauty of Dallas Valley speaks loud and clearly of the Creator's wisdom and power. It is our desire that through a variety of experiences you will grow in your awareness of who God is and how much He loves you. Everyone treasures friendships and the days you spend at Dallas Valley will give you an opportunity to make new friends. We know that you will enjoy the ...

Messages from the speaker.

Singing, music and chapel times.

Personal quiet times and prayer times.

Fun, fellowship and great cuisine.

Skill activities that our younger campers love.

Health & Safety:

The camp nurse is available to campers and staff on a 24-hour/day basis.

What is the cost:

There will be no charge for the Mid-Way and 60+ retreats. Instead you will have an opportunity to make a donation (tax deductible) to the ministry of Dallas Valley Ranch Camp for the amount of your choice. The fee for the Young Adult Retreat is $70, payable when you arrive for the retreat.

Registration and more information:

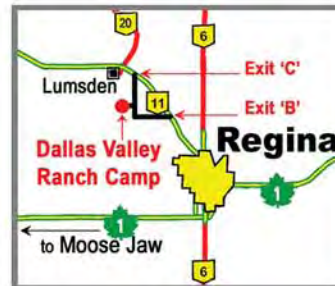

Call us: (306) 731-3348

Email us: dvalley@dallasvalley.com

View us: www.dallasvalley.com

Mail us: P.O. Box 779, Lumsden, SK S0G 3C0

Visit us this summer - see map below to find us.

More information on our retreats for adults as well as our summer camps for youth ages 9-17 years, and our hosting opportunities for guest groups is available on our website.

www.dallasvalley.com

DALLAS VALLEY RANCH
CAMP

Retreats

for

Young Adults

Adults

Seniors

Summer 2010

Mid-Way Get Away June 4-6

Ellery Pullman has been with Briercrest College and Seminary for the past 30 years. Ellery has been involved in a number of administrative and teaching roles at Briercrest and currently teaches full-time in the areas of developmental psychology, counseling, and educational studies. He is the Past President of the Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference and has also participated in a number of church and camping ministries in both Canada and the United States. He also serves as an adjunct faculty member in the Department of Educational Administration at the University of Saskatchewan. He is presently serving on the Board of Directors of Providence Place, an extended care health facility, in Moose Jaw, SK.

To pre-register call us at 306-731-3348 or send an email to dvalley@dallasvalley.com. When you contact us, we will request some information, answer any questions you might have, and then confirm your registration. Once you pre-register we will send you more information regarding the registration time on the first day of the retreat, accommodation options that are available at Dallas Valley and what to bring in terms of personal effects, etc.

60+ friends June 18-20

Daystar Praise, made up of Wayne & Lori Durksen (Caronport, SK) and Elwood & Doreen Benson (Dalmeny SK), present a blend of harmonies, lyrics and backgrounds to share a positive Christian message. They have shared their music over many years in churches, Bible camps, conferences, banquets and retreats.

Harvey Zink, our speaker for 60+ June, has served as Dean of Students at Briercrest Bible College (Caronport SK) and Canadian Bible College (Regina). He has been director for International Student Ministries Canada in Sask. & Man. and has served as Associate Pastor at Westhill Park Baptist in Regina. He also worked as a chaplain at the Regina RCMP Training Depot in Regina where he is still volunteering.

60+ friends September 4-6

Sam Berg, Professor of Counselling at Briercrest Seminary, will be the speaker for 60+ September. Sam has served as a youth pastor and camp manager in Kelowna, British Columbia, then as a senior pastor for twenty years and later had a private counselling practice in Ottawa. He presently serves as a counsellor at The Caring Place, a Christian counselling centre in Regina, Saskatchewan.

Freedom Song is made up of Aaron Ruston of Moose Jaw, and Brian and Carol Shauf of Regina. Their roots can be found in gospel and contemporary music which becomes quickly evident in their style of tight energy packed harmonies and the positive message that Freedom Song endeavors to bring in all that they do.

The ADULT retreats at Dallas Valley give people of all ages the opportunity to do the same activities that our youth campers do in our summer camps. You'll never have to stop being a camper! Join us for a time of physical and spiritual enrichment at one of our adult retreats this coming summer and you can look forward to some 'youth' activities that the 'kid in you' will really enjoy.

- * Climbing wall and ropes course.
- * Swimming pool and hot tub.
- * Archery, riflery and skeet shooting.
- * Wide games and 'hang out' time.
- * Fun and games at mealtime.
- * Horseback riding and wagon rides.
- * Paintball for the young adults.
- * Make new friends and renew old friendships.
- Time to 'hang out' with friends.

And then, of course, some 'oldies' for the 'oldies.

- * Table games and horse shoes.
- * Free time to take a walk or read a good book.
- * A 'special music group' for adults and seniors.
- * A round of golf at a course near the camp so bring your clubs.